

The American Council for Capital Formation Center for Policy Research will host a forum on “Understanding the Potential Impacts of Border Tax Adjustments” to explore the theoretical aspects and potential economic impact of increased taxes on imports, as well as a look at how the potential real world implications could work for different industries.

PANELISTS

Moderator: Greg Ip, Wall
Street Journal

Alan Viard, American
Enterprise Institute

Gary Hufbauer, Peterson
Institute for International Economics

Michael Graetz,
Columbia University

EVENT DETAILS

Date: Wednesday, February 8, 2017
Roundtable: 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM
Venue: Dirksen Senate Office Building,
Room G-50

REGISTER NOW

To learn more about the ACCF Center for Policy Research and other work on tax policy, visit our website.

The ACCF Center for Policy Research is a nonprofit 501 (c)(3) organization that brings together academics, policymakers, business executives, and members of the press to discuss important new research on economic, energy, and environmental policies. Our endeavors are focused on policies to increase U.S. economic growth, job creation, and competitiveness. Center publications are circulated widely in the U.S. policymaking community and at international policy conferences.

Since 1977, the ACCF Center for Policy Research has welcomed leading economists as members of its board of scholars. This distinguished board includes several Nobel Prize winners, members of the Presidential Council of Economic Advisers, Congressional Budget Office, U.S. Treasury consultants, and Federal Reserve board members.